

Band honors military with music from different wars

July 1, 2016 8:06 PM

The 319 U.S. Statue of Liberty Band honored the U.S. military on Friday ahead of Independence Day. (7/1/16)

THE BRONX - The 319 U.S. Statue of Liberty Band honored the U.S. military on Friday ahead of Independence Day.

The band says there were countless hours of rehearsal that went into their performance.

The performance was especially unique because the band played music from different eras when the U.S. was at war.

Original story published on Bronx.news12.com