Photo Exhibit Celebrates Bronx's Hip Hop Legacy

By Robert Wirsing

The Women's Housing and Economic Development Corp. hosted the opening reception for '13 Years of Tools of War Park Jams in the Bronx', an exhibition of nearly 200 photographs taken by world-class Bronx photographers Joe Conzo, Jr. and Francisco Molina Reyes II, on Thursday, July 28 at the Bronx Music Heritage Center. The display celebrates the Tools of War grassroots hip hop movement dedicated to preserving the Bronx's hip hop culture and legacy. The exhibit will run until Wednesday, September 28 at 1303 Louis Nine Boulevard.
