

BRONX UNDERGROUND SHOWCASES BORO'S EMERGING TALENT

Bronx Underground showcases boro's emerging talent

Enlarge this image

Photo by Silvio Pacifico

(l-r) Indiepunk band Statik Vision's Alex, Gabriel, Raymond and Jason rocked the crowd.

By Robert Wirsing

SHARE ON TWITTER
SHARE ON FACEBOOK
SUBSCRIBE

Don't miss our updates:

Bronxites had a rocking time when The Underground FLC and The Fox and the King, Inc. presented Rock the Bronx Emerging Music Platform on Thursday, February 21 at the Bronx Music Heritage Center. Hosted by legendary Living Colour drummer Will Calhoun, the borough's open mic night showcased the incredible talents of many local bands and up-and-coming artists from all genres including The Drew Torres Trio, Durieux, La Roka, Statik Vision, Pre-K Dropout, A-D, Sight and Division X.

Enlarge this image

Photo by Silvio Pacifico

Pre-K Dropout's Abner performed an intimate acoustic set for the audience.

Enlarge this image

Photo by Silvio Pacifico

BMHC co-artistic director and celebrated percussionist Bobby Sanabria (l) and renowned Living Colour drummer Will Calhoun welcomed everyone to the show.

Enlarge this image

Photo by Silvio Pacifico

La Roka had everyone grooving to the rhythm and beat.

Enlarge this image

Photo by Silvio Pacifico

Sight performed for the evening's audience.

Enlarge this image

Photo by Silvio Pacifico

(front, l-r) BMHC's Bobby Sanabria and Elena Martinez celebrated musical creativity with Will Calhoun and the evening's extensive lineup of local entertainers.

Updated 11:39 am, March 1, 2019

Link: <https://www.bxtimes.com/stories/2019/9/09-a-rock-2019-03-01-bx.html>